

YORK REGENCY DANCERS

The York Regency Dancers are a performance group dedicated to the preservation and presentation of 18th and early 19th century social dance forms. This volunteer-run group meets throughout the year on alternating Sunday afternoons to learn and polish the season's repertoire. YRD prepares for performances during the summer months on civic holidays and at Queen Charlotte's Birthday Ball held every January. As part of performance preparation, volunteers conduct research and either create or purchase period-appropriate garments suitable for both afternoon and evening engagements. The members of YRD have a wealth of resources, and are happy to assist newcomers with regard to patterns, fabrics, and resources.

If you are interested in becoming a York Regency Dance volunteer, kindly fill out the following questionnaire, and one of our Recruitment Volunteers will be happy to send you additional information. To become familiar with English Country Dance steps and figures, newcomers will be required to take part in a beginners training and assessment program beginning in September.
